FOREWORD:

The World requires the punctual execution of rights such as the predetermination of the peoples, and the poets with their lyrics have dedicated their poetry to Birland, under the perspective of the realization of freedom and the gaze of a Free, Independent State and with the enjoyment of Your rights. Human beings who create culture, who create art, are committed to leaving a story for Birland, full of successes for generations to come. Very soon life in Birland will paint its culture, its poetry as well as its advances. But this is not achieved if we do not give part of our strength and perhaps our heart to the realization of a dream. That dream for the poets who write here is Birland.

PRÓLOGO:

El Mundo requiere la ejecución puntual de derechos como la predeterminación de los pueblos, y los poetas con sus letras han dedicado a Birland su poesía, bajo la perspectiva de realización de la libertad y la mirada de un Estado Libre, Independiente y con el goce de sus derechos. Los seres humanos que crean cultura, que crean arte, están comprometidos en dejar para Birland una historia, llena de aciertos para las generaciones venideras. Muy pronto la vida en Birland nos pintará su cultura, su poesía como sus avances. Pero esto no se logra si no entregamos parte de nuestro acervo y quizá de nuestro corazón a la realización de un sueño. Ese sueño para los poetas que escriben aquí es Birland.

O Birland, tiny no man's land,
The warmth of the sun shower Envelope and smile upon you, Awakening you from deep slumber
For vision of greatness is poured upon you.

Part 1

“Please do not leave without us
B I R L A N D!”

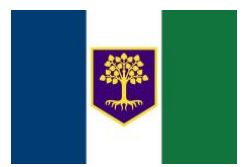

An utter loss...

Africa, the cradle of humanity;
Emir found your last country, within your territory,

Bound by its own border, bedecked by golden dunes, this pastureland of golden sand is the new state in our hand.

Your forgotten children Desolate in the long well land called “Bir Tawil”.

Birland, the land for the stateless & refugees in the arid land and wilderness, under the dark nights

maddening scorching heat soon, tears of joy will gaily kiss your cheeks

We, the original inhabitants
Have laid our hands on this land!
Oh Sudan, Oh Egypt!
Oh Africa, our Mother land!
Do not leave without us, Birland!

Birland

Between Sudan and Egypt
There is a land of dignity
A land of love and security
A land of peace and harmony

Though a land in the dessert
But it's an oasis of long waterwell
A land of beauty and strategy For the homeless to dwell.

A land of precious glory
In the hearts of peace loving poets
This is the modern land Flowing with Milk and Honey.

Happiness In Birland
~ 13th March 2021 ~

Af:) are the international oceans
And across the distant land
Between Sudan and Egypt
Traveling by came 🐫 or by jeeps.

Stateless friends around the globe 🌍
Living there, amongst palms 🌴 and oasis
Such is Birland, a land of beauty Where peace and harmony truly exist.

A state with a national flag 🚩
Of blue, white and green
The symbols of smiling faces
Can be discretely seen.

By the grace of God, the Almighty People staying there are healthy.
A state blessed by divine happiness
Not a country of sand dunes wilderness.

Mr. Alan Liew

Mr. Alan Liew is a Malaysian, a resident of Kuala Lumpur, the federal capital of Malaysia.

He was educated and trained as a mechanical engineering consultant at the University Technology Malaysia.

He was a specialist in mechanical services in various types of buildings. He was involved in the "design and specification" work such as air conditioning, mechanical ventilation, refrigeration (cold rooms), lifts and escalators, fighting systems, plumbing and sanitation, hot and cold piping systems etc.

Besides being a consultant for building services, he was also involved in the following activities

1) he was appointed by the ministry of Labor, Manpower and Training to serve as chairman (for almost 5 years) for the air conditioning and refrigeration section of the Lembaga Latihan

Perindustrian dan Persijilan Ketukangan (the National Industrial Trade Testing And Certification Board). He also "chaired" the committee in the drafting, reviewing of syllabus and trade standard, and also conducted air conditioning and refrigeration examinations in Malaysia.

2) He was a member of the steering committee for the formation of the Association of Air Conditioning Contractors in Malaysia and had served as "Alternate Vice President"

3) He was elected as a treasurer for the steering committee and had assisted in the drafting and preparation of the: Bylaws and constitutions for the formation of the Local Chapter of the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration, and Air Conditioning Engineers. He was also elected as a Treasurer for the Local Chapter after obtaining approval from the Register of Society, Malaysia.

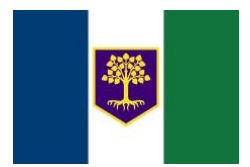

4) He was elected as a vice president of Kuala Lumpur Dancers' Association (KLDA).

An association of ballroom dancing, he served as vice president for 5 years.

5) He was a member of Lion Club International, and was elected as president for 2010. The Lion Club is an NGO for charity, its moto is "We Serve".

His interest in poetry writing started when he was in lower secondary schools (form 2), He had composed poems and had submitted to the news paper, a few of his poems were selected and published in the news paper, the Malay Mail.

Since then he had been continually writing poetries. In fact he is an active blogger, and has been composting and posting poems in his blog. He also post his poems on the FaceBook to share with his FB friends. His blog: tehtarikpoet.blogspot.com

To date in his blog, there are 1094 + (one thousand and ninety four) poems.

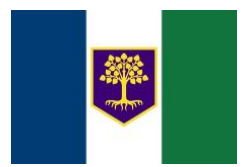

The various topics of poems he has written are love and romance, nature, global warming and -- climate change, tsunami and earthquake, peace and anti war, charity, fairytales, poems with stories, and poems of everyday life.. etc. He is currently working to publish his first book on poetry.

He had been conferred the award of GOLDEN DOVES OF PEACE by Motivational Strips Literature group, and the award of Diploma - "World Poetic Star " from World Nation Writers Union, the world's largest writers union from Kazakhstan. He has also been given the certificate of Honored Poet Of Malaysia by Lasosyasyon Lar San Frontier (LLSF), An International Literary And Arts Society, recognized by the Government of Republic of Seychelles. Birland

We love Egypt, we love Sudan we also respect both of you But there is a country in between you two Birland, to whom we raise our hands with the support of the globe it truly stands The soil, the water and the atmosphere is truly like no other nations and fair we have not been to you But we can feel your existence and issue
It's a land for true citizens nest Darwinism reminds Survival of the fittest
The sunshine brings light every morning
The history reminds of its turning People of Birland are in a nation
To whom they serve in every generation Existence may not be sufficient indeed we feel they are in a stage of in need we pray with fair humanity
The beauty of nation is sovereignty
May Birland remain in everybodys heart Human right peace and love we say perth!

Dear Birland!

Your existance was always there you were far from us
But we were feeling from here!
From different parts of the globe poets were uniting for you Because the mission for you was universal truth and pure your nomenclature proves that Birland is a sovereign country for sure The soil, the atmosphere, the living beings and the sorroundings must be happy today you are inside the hearts of poets dear!
Dear Egypt
Dear Sudan
you got an innocent peace loving friend that is very rare to get!
The mission that was started by the peace love and humanity loving figures was really from pure heart and fair!

Let's celebrate we were successful

Let's be united for the truth from every parts of the globe here!

Long live Birland!

Lets be kind and happy to celebrate and share!

Although you are thousands of mile from here.

But we can feel you are just near you are our dear.

You are our dear!

Rising Birland!

Nature is not biased you can feel it Education is cosmopolitan you can deal with it pain is everywhere you can heal it Decades passing by mankind can heel it Struggles needs to be continued soldiers can drill it Development is necessity you can thrill it Solidarity braverity and honesty is there you can grill it Birland remains inside the hearts of us one can silk it
The threads of silk are binded forever for the whole world can circle it Dear Birland you are "rising" in every aspects people can fulfill it.

Despite

Despite of all sorrow
Birland will definitely rise n shine tomorrow!
The nature, the innocent people
The fragarance of love peace n humanity.
Birland moves towards unity thorough.
We all poets from different parts of the globe will be together with Birlands voice
You will definitely stand infront of the world like Kilimanjaro!
Development is must in every nation Experts are ready to serve you You please do not hesitate to burrow.
Rome was not built in a day Which is an example of hard work and dedication for every nations like a bone marrow.
You are the land of honest citizens you are located in a suitable position you give shelter to your true citizens like a Kangaroo!
Dear Birland you keep your citizens safe like a Kangaroo!

Dream about Freedom

I dream a future
I dream about a place
Touch the sand
Pray to the Lord
Getting off the boat
Fly as you never did before Bombs in the right
Bombs at the left Bodies full of blood
Innocent children crying
One day peace will come Come to a place called Birland Freedom
I dream

One day

No tears will drop from A baby's face

Children will be free to play hide and seek Without any bombs

Cutting their laughter

One day, we will find our road to Birland

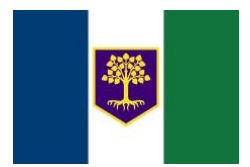

Birland

A country for the speakers of peace

Birland a place where Home is meant to be

With our heart we pray
As believers
We claim
Birland will be our home
We will protect
We will defend Birland
Birland
Hope and pray for a better World
We pray
Oh Birland
A place where home
Is meant to be.

Smaragdí Mitropoulou

BIRLAND (=HOMELAND OF THE HEART)

Under the desert sky and next to the river that silently crosses the palm trees a land blessed by Gods waits for the wayfarers.
Soil and water, sun, bread and love...
Through the roar of the wind and wild waves
I, the stranger, have been wandering around for centuries alone without my mother's amulet.
The night when the moon became one with the sea an invisible hand led me here...
My soul found a homeland to rely on a port as a shelter and the devoted birds to greet with a ferry-line full of dreams coming and going.

Smaragdi Mitropoulou

Smaragdi Mitropoulou was born in Athens. She has studied history and archaeology at the University of Athens and has a postgraduate degree in history from the University of Cardiff, in Great Britain. She serves in secondary education. She is also a Creative Writing graduate (Diploma in Creative Writing) from the Writers' Bureau College (Manchester, UK), and has studied theater writing at the International Theater Institute and directing at the Foundation of Culture in Tinos island. Prasanna Kumar India

The Birland a Land of Natives

Emerged to mark its place in the hearts
The most sought after essence, Yes, you are right, peace that's what we are after, a tiny magnificence between Sudan and Egypt, yonder - to embrace seekers of brotherhood, Birland is for you and us

Come join the legacy of poets,

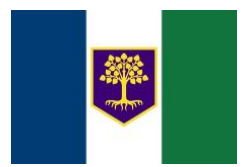

Let's unite in singing the anthem,
No class, creed, sex in violation,
Uniformity and harmony is our agend, Let's build the Nation, which has no place for discrimination.

A strip of land is blooming,

calling the attention of the people,
Come!
I'm the one to hold you in the bosom,
come!
Into my laps of peace,
I just came into existence, to shower you with Harmony of music,
to drive away from the discordant hues, I'm the newly born baby on the land called "BIRLAND"

I travelled across the Nations Picking petals of roses and thorns of all seasons, Yet, I find something brothering my core,
yes, everywhere it's more of furore

than composure,
I landed on the sand a newborn strip of land, a soothing breeze whizzed and welcomed me, wholeheartedly.
The very moment
I took a resolution of settling down myself in the holy land of peace.

I'm witnessing a new Dawn, the sun is dazzling with a smile,
the flowers whispering with a blush, thanking the angels for bestowing the peace and a marked difference,

yes, I'm talking about the booming land and a blooming bud Called pretty "BIRLAND"

Tian Du

Galaxy in Silvery

Did you always feel powerless

Especially at midnight,
And felt lonely unexpectedly,
In the dim light?
Oh look at the galaxy,
Just sighing that you lost your smile.
Come on and return to be brave,
The breeze of your voice is clearly now in sight.

Remember my friends that you're not alone on the road of life,
There are still thousands of hopes waiting in your future.

Someone just said that the blessings can be achieved by our true souls and delight, Don't forget at that moment that I'm one of your guys.

Lonely nights,

The lonely wounds will be cured by the candlepower that will be ignited from your eyes.

The shadow of God,
May become the most love in a moment's surprise.

Snowy hearts,
The snowy white will heal our surroundings in selflessness of bright.
Ah it's that warmth waving and dispersing the cold and sorrow,
Simple as such, but the truth is just like that.

Birland-For Peace

Monday ,1st March 2021

I appreciate and understand about the peace-loving Birland with a peaceful mission standing for an open invitation what is the need for an hour?

the pride and honour not only for the land but great resolve to approach and remove the dead end

world needs solace promises face to face with full commitment and great movement

poets have peaceful ammunition and are ready for ignition ignition of thoughts for common good the peaceful essence of the drive is well understood

how far shall we extend?
and bring an end the peaceful quest we shall try our level best together we raise one voice it is the clear choice with full-fledged drive to live and survive

Birland-Hope for Humanity

Friday, 19th February 2021

Birland

Bir means brave land means we all know we grow each day

we have free land at this end to preach and profess and provide access

love is what we propagate we open the gate for peace and harmony for the humankind universally what shall we achieve?

peace to live harmony to enjoy stability and not the hostility with joy our message shall be relayed and conveyed with no duality of words but coupled with work

Not an Easy Task
Monday, 22nd February 2021

to start with the peace drive and survive internationally

"Birland" has seized an initiative and remained subjective with clear indicative she has natives full of zeal for peace

King is benevolent his steps are instant so we are backing his move and prove as peace followers let everyone join and maintain the dignity for works toward humanity

when thousands are dying and millions of wounded are suffering we need a peace torch in our hand and work towards to bring an end let my Birland excel and lead the world as well for bringing durable peace for everybody to live at an ease

Eden S. Trinidad -Single Crusader

Saturday, 27th February 2021

We have come across legendary women who not only acted like her highness but gave it also a human face and protected kingdom and race in modern days, ladies don't lag behind but find a suitable and respectable place not only for the name of Birdland but made it known as protector of the literary

Not as a gratitude or thankful gesture
I want to point out here the name of Eden S. Trinidad who has contributed a lot for Birland but heroes are never sung for their contribution but certainly remembered for laying the foundation

working tirelessly for world peace and spreading the message in the universe

Her magnitude of energy to work for the literature's entity She works selflessly to improve the improvement and presents it in its true form she is not a fame-hungry individual but a true name for a hard-working individual if literature is to survive and peace to reign the message should go with a positive sign

Honour-Birlanders

Friday, 25th June 2021

It is a golden day that has come on the way not by a chance or not by a coincidence

there shall be a shining day the sun with golden rays spreading over the Birland* to make its presence poetically and act friendly

Prime ministerial address to bring a smile on our face and highlight the goal for making it globally

what shall we be singing!
and bringing our desire to the fore and whatever feelings we have in the store that D-day is approaching fast we shall leave the lasting impression with our endeavour to earn peace and honour

the entire drive is not merely to survive but to revive the sagging spirit of life entire world shall listen to and pass-through the magical spirit of dynamic poets who shall let their musical touch in the poetry

MY PRIDEFUL COUNTRY

I salute you

You are my country
You are my life-line
My heart's pulse for your pride
I can tolerate any problems
But can't for you
To keep your liberty
My body touches this soil
Your love shall offer memorial things Beauty of this land Astonishes me
And their helpers good and true;
I will dare to compare With people who are heroes,
To give the country a distinct geographical entity Where people's unity
Love is worship for all
No discriminations
And the tumult of hate cease
I follow fate with my country
And a big ole smile on my face
For its shining future.

The Land Called Birland

This Land that lay lonely there, the grasses and trees on it are utterly happy and awesomely healthy.
The air seeks us.

The one duty we owe is watering her with our fertile words from our heart.
Fertile words like co-operation, love, peace and integrity.

This Land that yearns for our sweet harmless souls to abide in her is Birland.
Sure she will abide in us!

She could be thirsty by now and here in our heart we have productive water.
She is empty and we are her emptiness.

Let us go and fill the vacuum with harmony.

Let us move to this land all putting peaceful piece of co-operation and love on.

Ears be told that it is our beautiful promised Land.

Jeste li čuli
Za državu bez granica
Gde caruje duga
I prolećna ljubav?
Ja jesam.
Njeno je ime Birland.
Država u kojoj dan nema prošlost, Sadašnjost ni budućnost.

Jeste li čuli za tu zemlju?
Znate li gd je?
Bašte su joj uvele...
Toj zemlji, gde u cveću živela je kraljica Birlanda.

Odjednom, smrt...
Odjednom, ona beše tu...
Pokopala je sve što činilo je Njenu vasionu.

U tom grobu mladosti i cvetova Još je bila živa

Al uspavana na krilima bola.
Na njoj je uvelo cvece i umrla duga.
Ona spava. A s njom lepota njena.

Have you heard
About a country without borders
Where the dugong is King
And prolećna ljubav?
Yes, I do.
Her name is Birland.
A country where there is no day for idleness,
No present, no future.

Do you feel for this land?
Do you know where it is?
The bastions are withered...
This land where Queen Birland lived in glory.

From one, death...
On the one hand, she's not here...
She buried everything that made her Her village.

In that grave of youth and flowers
Josh was alive

Or asleep on the wings of pain.
Her body withered and she died a long death.
She sleeps. And with it her beauty.

Peace and Unity in Birland State

There is hope, deep and enormous
For peace in abundant measure.
If we try to live in a world of bliss
We must do together, that is sure.

Humanity dreams of peace
But war descends with its dreaded paw Humanity shouts: 'What is this?'
Yet, lamentation is not the cure.

There is miracle in the silence
And in what we call for But silence still hurts conscience
And no remedy from doctor.

Until Union occurs
For no war no more Promote peace in oneness
For that is the cure.

LET THE WORLD BE BORN

We try to raise a Land
Let the world be born!

You must bloom, you promised thrill
Let the world be born!

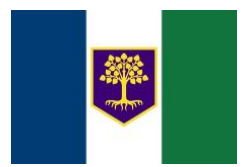

Open traces of immeasurable roars
Let the world be born!

We joy in the awaiting Land
Let the world be born!

A cadence of heart might yield
Let the world be born!

For dreamers of peace are in full hope
Let the world be born!

O come child of the divinest
Let the world be born!

I don't see your tender blossom
Let the world be born!

But you are full of life
Let the world be born!

Peace and bliss must abide in you
Let the world be born!

God has not forgotten to give us You
Let the world be born!

Silences amid sleepless muse
Let the world be born!

Lots of love from holy fountain
Let the world be born!

For you are already the retainer of peace
Let the world be born!

A new land must rise
Let the world be born!

That poetry be sang stanza by stanza
Let the world be born!

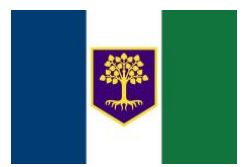

We still catch on to your unfading color
Let the world be born!

After 'woe' will be 'ooh'
Let the world be born!

After Discord will be Concord
Let the world be born!

For the bower of boon and plus we raise
Let the world be born!

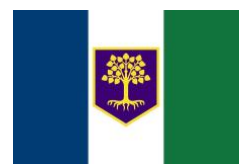

Let the world be born
Let the world be born!

LET ME LISTEN TO MY HEART

His divine music gives me ecstasy
To walk, dance on the rhythm of life
He left seven deadly sins Transformed anger into intuitive kindness to survive
He helps me to listen to the humming of the bees
I see true beauty through divine heart eyes Innocent I'm, let them to be wise
Neither he has fear of fall nor desire to rise
He doesn't have any secret, the soul is his true guide
I'm sailing in the ocean; It's too wide I've this speedy horse; control his reign when I'm to ride

HOPE FOR BIRLAND

Let's keep on going for peace and prosperity
It's a dream land for social and religious integrity Different cultures, different colours of life Extends for love and generosity
Will be known forever for its diversity
Let me see rainbows for BIRLAND
Oh Almighty! Bless oneness all for universal unity

LET'S SING FOR BIRLAND

O God! Thank to thee for this beautiful land
The place of love and, the place of art Oh Almighty! You're the law we're your soul Bless BIRLAND with your voice
The hills, the seas, the divinity is your choice Thank to thee for the land where people sing songs of good will It's the land of love where people free till
A land of Peace and settled government Bless BIRLAND the strongest feathers
Thank to thee for beauty and all creatures

EXPLORING BEYOND

I travel far and across;
Within a finite known,
And to an infinite unknown

A very complex expedition; Within infinite layers of finite,
And finite layers of infinite

The journey within limits;
Limits me on to my limited known,
And the journey beyond my limits Takes me to enormity of unknown

Where, what I am thinking now Definitely unknown to my little known But my known is feeling so blessed In peaceful palms of a greater unknown
The Morning Bliss

Oh my beloved Lets open ourselves
To morning bliss
For unique tastes of verve

Lets walk with morning breeze Coming straight from the heaven

Lets inhale all freshness Before inferno of the day
Simmer it into deleterious day

Lets listen to serenity
And songs of the nature
Before nature relent to noisy day

Let's see prisms of nature Reflecting and projecting True colors of light and nature

Lets walk my beloved With Moring bliss
Hand in hand, step with step Inhaling the fragrance of serene dawn Tasting every pearl on our bare feet
On green grass, kissing morning droplets Lets walk with morning bliss
To taste our love with morning delight
And taste candid life with eternal bliss

A Song to Birland

Born near Egyptian oases
On the greenery of Sudan
A land once owned but by no man, Now rising to glorious apogees!

Birland, nation of humanity;
May the Supreme's bless you, ever-bounty, Endlessly poureth out upon thee!
Land of hope, land of the free!

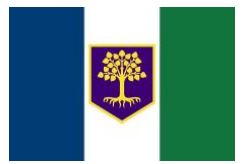

Thou are a spring on desert land
A fortress towered from scattered stones,
A breath of humanity, and the Divine!
May ye rise, prosper, and shine!

Birland, hail! Oh, dear Birland!
A country born from desert sand!
Shine bright, and be a light!
Hail! Oh newborn African light!

Adrian Fisga Luague hails from the Philippines. The young poet and author is the founder of Peace and Love Inkers Society, Co-President of One World Writers Movement, and a mentor and administrator in Filipino Poets in Blossoms. Birland

Beautiful Birland glitter under bright sunshine,
At night twinkle as little star in moon light,
The land is as beautiful as blooming garden,
Has very clear vision,
Can sees far in the distance,
Don't live in present only,
Believe in spade work for future generations to survive.

Health conscious people, Love and promote community gardens, to grow and harvest grains and vegetables.

To save culture and religion drowning into darkness, Seniors discuss among the youngsters the value of life.

Peace loving people of Birland live happily as one community and enjoy life
Send the message of oneness to the world

William Warígon

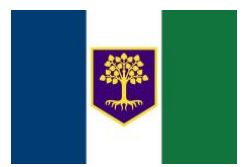

BIG BIRDS, BIG BARDS OF BIRLAND

Here we are, here converging To give teeth to land emerging In this beautiful freedom, Bringing bards to a home Where wings spread not only in flight
But to put plates of rights without fight.

Here, happiness is but free,
With fat fruits on sweet tree.
Between the thighs of old Egypt,
A land lush, albeit seen as crypt
With potentials to hold hands with big super.
That will wear the robe of the famed Kuiper.

Stateless, but not tasteless,
Is Tarwil by the armpit of Sudan.
Neighbours squabbles endless
The peace grows here in our elan.
The big birds serenade the big bards Until our twitches twist tawny beards.

To Birland's long limb we cling today.
To her future we brighten with hope.
No loping strides in the path we pray Without no alarms ailing in any rope.
Bards, call the birds down to this new dawn.
It is the right time to reap what's been sown.

Maid Corbic

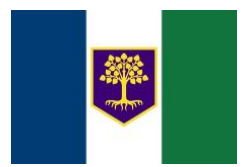

PROSPERITER BIRLAND

On this solemn day, I celebrate a new life
I create, I cultivate with my goodness
Only to selected persons, benefactors
Who will understand what I am trying to present
Not only to that people, but to others around them Skillfully with his gift given to me by God

I am celebrating a new beginning of life, Birland is my country
She always gives a lot, and in return she asks for nothing
Because it is a country that has been described as humane for centuries
And I would never abandon what people understand, a warm word Although today it may be to some extent represented

My songs are a hotbed of goodness and pure souls Everything I do, I do for the people as I have done so far
If it is possible for someone to be so happy because of me

I will not become any obstacle for him at all

Birland, the land of life and honesty of honor
What people can recognize

Love is an ordinary embrace that extends to everyone

No matter what religion or race they were Because this state accepts all those people who are not its own
Fortunately, they are always, totally, totally ready

Prosperous Birland is always present in all spheres Life is so short that we listen to political disagreements Because the value of everything is that we help each other
We lead by a symbol of peace that always fills hearts with joy
Because for goodness we live passionately and loudly, honorably and clearly

Unrivaled, I think Birland's love is pure for everyone Who believes that the world is not so dirty and dirty

Because everything is in goodness, everything is in honesty
And about the feelings I have, Birland is a state of beauty
The luxuries of naturalness, and richer for sincere people!

Xanthi Hill Hondrou

Greece

I want to go to a land...

I want to go to a land
and plant my hopes, to grow in the colours of peace,
to raise a country in humanity

where miracles happen where the dessert turns to paradises and tears into smiles

where a King provides for his people where refugees are welcome and stateless find a home

where dreams are encouraged and poems flow like rivers to water it's soul

I want to go to Birland!

A HARMONIOUS LIVING

On the soil of harmonious living and dignity

Unless we sow the seeds of social equality;
We cannot ensure qualitative living to sprout
Or can see it grow into a giant tree; no doubt.

Without bias towards race, region and religion Neglect or abandonment, the state should shun; Adoring the environment and natural resources
Let a cosmopolitan culture mature and progress.

A harmonious living is a boon for any region
That constantly boosts the state's elevation;
Upholding and improving the living standards Hearten people to respect all and to work hard.

With an enthusiastic and a matured governance Economy captures the great good golden chance;
Yes, with a promising social and cultural activity,
It's easy to please the mindset of entire society.

Let's wish the grand State of Birland (Birtawil) Thrive with progress and prosperity, perpetual;
May peace prevail there; become a haven for all,

Let the habitable place, echo with bliss eternal.

Pairing To Soul Belt

You too write a line to step up, and tilt not to be caught by a painful note

You too quote a role at site of fairy joy, shaping a huging accord

You too hold a spelling set of mirth flair, on the ground of an ode

You too wield a tie with croon tune in spring traced oath.

You sit by my side, you have the same step of human lane

You hold my hand tight by tying my way for humanity tent

You create a field of free joy by tilling the juicy blend

You call me from a far court, through crazy tale of true chant.

You tell me stories of your life, in a tent at a silent site

You lie in wind course, to etch a few tones of delight

You tick in the pace of sifted nap, ready for another dig on site

You urge all to utter oath, to end false gaze or burning bite.

You are no different, but same as I, while standing upright in an evil hunt,

So you hug me with your tale and pour in freely your lively chant.

Bir Tawil Inhabitants

Bir Tawil inhabitants occupied the land Named Birland taking fascinating flag in their hand.

Claimed the land with special right, Having citizenship and nationality of people alright.

This land has two thousand km area ownership,
People have freedom and citizenship.

To live at own will with special criteria,
Dream to make it a heavenly area.

Where music may dance, Greenery all over the land,
all may get a glance,
Very good production of grains,
People enjoy consumption chance.

People have patience and elation Raise lovely slogan of brotherhood and affection,

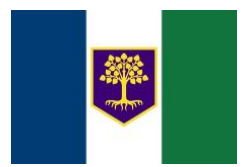

All enjoy divine happiness
With sweet emotions pick up their pieces.

Beautiful flowers with fragrance touch every heart,
Each and every moment enjoy lovely sweet honey without any hesitation.

We obliged to this world,
And from now on and forward,
All jolly life enjoy in happiness totally,
Poets may share their happiness with lovely poetry.

Sun, moon, stars too want to descend to this earth, too
This land may become divine, Deity may wish to be born here and his existence redifine.

MY DREAMS OF HOPE

Oh, My Dreamland Birland
We are in Motherlands Fold
We all Birlanders here to work
Our Mind is Pure, Our Intent is Pure

I will maintain the Nature in ship-shape condition
Oh Nature, give me your blessing
I will purify my mind and soul
I am greatfull to be in your fold

I have big dreams on Birland Oh, My Motherland give me courage and confidence
I promise to work for future generations
My life is for my motherland Birland

Birland

The most beautiful land in the world Land of peace y dear Birland Birland is a symbol of peace

Land of poets
Reflecting humanity
Country Birland

Birds fly while reciting poems
People walking around helping everyone Living together

A country known to the world
A country that is proud of its name
A bright star
Birland is an exemplary country

Birland

There is such a place
In our world
Egypt and Sudan's abandoned back house;
Un-claimed Bir Tawil

Bir Tawil,
Become Birland
Your unique identity is as beautiful as the thought of every poet in the world.

Masudul Hoq(1968) has a PhD in Aesthetics under Professor Hayat Mamud at Jahangirnagar University, Dhaka, Bangladesh. He is a contemporary Bengali poet, short story writer, translator and researcher. His previous published work includes short stories Tamakbari (1999), The poems Dhonimoy Palok (2000), Dhadhashil Chaya which translated version is Shadow of Illusion (2005) and Jonmandher Swapna which translated version is Blind Man's Dream (2010), translated by Kelly J. Copeland. Masudul Hoq also translated T.S. Eliot's poem, Four Quartets (2012), Allen Ginsburg's poem, Howl (2018), from English to Bengali. In the late 1990's for 3 years he worked under a research fellowship at The Bangla Academy. Bangla Academy has published his two research books. Sueño a Birland

Desde el vergel de las liras y el cantar de los sueños nos agiganta en poemas con sus prados amigos.

Con la metáfora viva y las beldades del cielo sus alumbradas quimeras dejan de luna su tierra.

Florece en verso con las miradas despiertas hacia el elisio caminan con vendavales unidos.

Sus mujeres las musas, de las tenaces victorias con sus hombres de pluma son el cantar de la historia.

Con las mieses diversas y sus destinos abantes viene del cielo su canto para sentir el resabio.

Con la pujanza del puño y los derechos cercanos viven de perlas sus hadas como las aves su espacio.

Saludo a los poetas de Birland

Un saludo cordial y efusivo a todos quienes hacen el Estado de Birland. Tengan un abrazo de vuestro hermano desde Quito – Ecuador.

Hermanados con el arte y la cultura, es un honor participar de este evento lleno de poesía, con los mejores poetas del planeta. Aquí están los mejores en arte y en corazón, aquí se vuelve realidad la gran historia de reyes y reinas, de princesas y príncipes, que los poetas llevamos acrisolando con la pluma por toda la vida.

Quiero agradecer al impulso literario y al altruismo que Su Majestad la Princesa Eden Soriano Trinidad entrega con el grupo Poetas de Birland, como en su largo trabajo por la paz planetaria.

Paz y cadena ...

(Jotabé dodecasílabo con estrambote)

Valle de venturas, posas con cariño, como la cordura por la paz de un niño.

Rosa de mis flores que besas rocío en la sierra llena del inmenso frío.
Parece la luna, ser la flor del río con la sed sacada del espejo mío.

A toda ventana llega el ave buena, con su canto alegre, con frescura amena.

Pero la inocencia de la piel de armiño de los rancios plomos llega a lo sombrío, así llega en trueno, desdicha y condena...

Así toda cadena..., que se pinta vieja, siempre viene mala, en la mano rompe, por el pecho tala.

Sound to Birland

From the orchard of lilies and the songs of dreams she magnifies us in poems with her friendly meadows.

With the living metaphor and the beauties of the sky her illuminated chimeras leave her land in moonlight.

Little flowers in verse with awakened glances walk towards the elysium with united forces.

The women, the muses of tenacious victories with their great men of penmanship are singing her history.

With their diverse harvests and their destinies unfolding their song comes from the sky to feel the scent.

With the strength in their fist and the rights close at hand their fairies live in pearls free like birds in the sky.

I salute the poets of Birland

A warm and warm greeting to all who make the State of Birland. Have a hug from your brother from Quito - Ecuador.

Twinned with art and culture, it is an honor to participate in this event full of poetry, with the best poets on the planet. Here are the best in art and in heart, here the great story of kings and queens, of princesses and princes, that we poets have been refining with the pen for our whole lives, becomes reality.

I want to thank the literary impulse and altruism that her Royal Highness Princess Eden Soriano Trinidad delivers with the group Poets of Birland, as in her long work for planetary peace.

Peace and chain ...

(Jotabé dodecasyllable with bizarre)

Valley of ventures, you pose with affection, like sanity for the peace of a child.

Rose of my flowers that you kiss dew in the mountains full of the immense cold.
It looks like the moon, to be the flower of the river with the thirst taken out of my mirror.

The good bird comes to every window, with his happy song, with pleasant freshness.

But the innocence of the ermine fur from the rancid leads it reaches the gloomy, so it comes in thunder, misery and condemnation ...

So every chain ..., that looks old, always looks bad, in the hand he breaks, by the chest he cuts.
